Celebration of International Yoga day 21 June 2019

2018-19

During an address to the United Nations in 2014, Indian Prime Minister Narendra Modi proposed the idea of dedicating a specific day to yoga. He suggested June 21 as the date for International Yoga Day because it is the longest day of the year in the northern hemisphere.

2022-23

Yoga was inscribed on the Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity in 2016. The philosophy behind the ancient Indian practice of yoga has influenced various aspects of how society in India functions, whether it be in relation to areas such as health and medicine or education and the arts. Based on unifying the mind with the body and soul to allow for greater mental, spiritual and physical wellbeing, the values of yoga form a major part of the community's ethos.

A program was organised in our college to promote 'Human Values and Ethics' among students. This program was presided by our honourable principal and Brahma Kumaris BK Jayanti Didi was the keynote speaker. She spoke about the importance of human values in our life and role of meditation and yoga for a peaceful and happy life. This program was a grand success.
